

Overall, as things presently stand, we assume that pre-tax profit in 2013 will be lower than the result for 2012. We will also continue to maintain our growth course beyond 2013 and at the moment have to assume that market conditions for this period will be largely unchanged. We therefore expect the result for financial year 2014 to be on a par with the level in 2013.

Expected financial situation

According to current forecasts, the financial situation and assets will be similar to the position in reporting year 2012.

comdirect bank AG has not concluded any compensation agreements with members of the Board of Managing Directors or employees in the event of a takeover bid.

Details and explanations relating to the accounting-related internal control and risk management system

The aim of the accounting-relating internal control and risk management system is to ensure that the annual and consolidated financial statements, which are to be published, comply with generally accepted accounting principles and thus provide a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position and results of operations. This goal is achieved by anchoring the Internal Control System group-wide in the organisational structure and through the different components of the system.

Organisation

The internal control and risk management system relating to the accounting process is part of the remit of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Within the Management Board division, the Finance, Controlling & Risk Management department is responsible for financial reporting in accordance with legal regulations and internal and external guidelines. Within the division, the Finance department is responsible for external financial reporting and calculation of current and deferred taxes, while internal reporting is the responsibility of Controlling. The Risk Management department is responsible throughout the bank for identifying, measuring, managing, monitoring and communicating risks as well as management of the retail credit risk. While Internal Audit reports to the CEO, Compliance reports to the CFO. The Supervisory Board monitors the accounting process primarily via the Audit Committee which is responsible in particular for questions regarding accounting, ensuring the required independence of the auditors, granting the audit contract to the auditors, determining the focal points of the audit and the agreed-upon fee arrangement. The Audit Committee also monitors Compliance. The Rules of Procedure for the Supervisory Board demand that the Chairman of the Audit Committee must have particular expertise and experience in the application of accounting principles and internal control procedures.

Control functions relating to financial reporting are assumed by the Board of Managing Directors and the Supervisory Board on one hand and by various units within Finance on the other.

On behalf of the Board of Managing Directors, Internal Audit provides independent, objective and risk-oriented auditing and advisory services aimed at optimising the business processes of the comdirect group in terms of correctness, security and cost-effectiveness. Internal Audit supports the Board of Managing Directors by systematically assessing the effectiveness and appropriateness of the Internal Control System and business processes on a targeted basis, providing auditing support for key projects and making recommendations. This helps safeguard business processes and assets. There is a meeting between the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Head of Internal Audit before each meeting of the Supervisory Board dealing with the approval of the annual accounts.

Internal Audit reports directly to the Board of Managing Directors. It carries out its tasks autonomously and independently. The reporting and evaluation of the audit findings are not bound by any instructions. In line with the minimum requirements for risk management (MaRisk), the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Supervisory Board can obtain information directly from the Head of Internal Audit.

The Internal Audit department of comdirect reports directly to the comdirect Board of Managing Directors and the Board is responsible for its management. Information is frequently exchanged between the Internal Audit department of comdirect and Group Audit of Commerzbank with regular reporting also taking place.

comdirect is solely responsible for preparing the accounts. It possesses the required expertise, particularly through its qualified personnel.

Components

Clear and binding accounting standards are in place within the comdirect group, which comply with legal regulations and the accounting standards of Commerzbank, the ultimate parent company. They are subject to auditing by the auditors and are continually reviewed with regard to the need for updating and adjusted if required.

In addition to the accounting guidelines, various organisational measures ensure reliable reporting. Consequently, there are clear lines of authority at comdirect, which ensure the allocation of specialist task areas and responsibilities. Decisions are made exclusively in accordance with the allocated authorities. These regulations make a significant contribution to facilitating proper accounting at all times.

A further fundamental element ensuring correct accounting is the principle of dual control, whereby critical actions must always be checked by another person. Furthermore, the Finance unit is structured in line with the segregation of duties principle, under which incompatible activities are kept separate from each other in terms of organisation and are processed separately to avoid conflicts of interest.

The IT systems are also a key component in the annual accounts process and must therefore comply with the requirements of the internal control and risk management system. Various software systems are used in the comdirect group to prepare the financial statements and comdirect makes extensive use of the Commerzbank systems. comdirect uses the Internal Audit department at Commerzbank to monitor and audit the systems used. Furthermore, comdirect receives the extracts from the report of the auditors of Commerzbank on an annual basis. In addition to standard software, programmes that are specially configured for the requirements of the bank are also used for accounting purposes.

All programmes are subject to numerous plausibility checks, which are an integral part of the system landscape used in accounting. All the systems used in the Finance unit are protected by an effective access authorisation concept.

The entire accounting process and all instructions are documented. The system described here is reviewed annually and updated, in particular to reflect changes in the law, directives and accounting standards.
